Hi there,

Thank you for writing in to let us know about this material. We're sorry to hear that you have found content which you object to on SoundCloud.

We don't pre-screen content, but we do reserve the right to remove anything reported to us that is in breach of our Terms of Use or Community Guidelines, including any content that we deem to be otherwise unacceptable based on our reasonable discretion.

Please provide us with the following details so that we can moderate this content:

- (1) The full URL of the account you want to report
- (2) Your own URL (if you have an account with SoundCloud)
- (3) A screenshot of the content in question
- (4) A direct URL (if applicable) to the content
- (5) A sentence explaining on what grounds the reported content violates our Terms of Use or Community Guidelines

Remember, what's acceptable to one person, may be shocking to another. We support freedom of speech here at SoundCloud, including the right of an individual to express an opinion that may be unpopular or potentially controversial.

We'd also like to remind you that an individual's response to material is subjective. Please remember that if you do see or hear something you don't agree with, you have the option of ignoring it and unfollowing the user who's uploading it. If this doesn't help, then we recommend blocking them (<https://help.soundcloud.com/hc/en-us/articles/115003565188-Blocking-other-users>) to prevent being exposed to their content in the future.

However, if this content is deemed to be in violation of our Terms of Use or Community Guidelines, we will act accordingly by removing the content and extending a warning to the account owner. Further action will be taken if the user continues this behavior after being warned.

We will let you know the result of your report as soon as we can.

Best regards,

Dear SoundCloud:

The situation that I am introducing here to you is important for you to realize that you are owned by Google.

Over the past many years I have attempted to address this matter with Google in itself.

That's been using feedback across the web and all sorts of different mechanisms to get communications into Google's perspective.

However that may be and whatever those were piece by piece by piece I'm telling you right now that somebody is going to have to do something this time.

There is no way to explain this in a small detail. This is a complex issue a very complex matter that puts this into the preliminary capture of what we should do to step forward into this view of reality.

This is a cross posting in three subject threads. It is requested that you read all threads complete before you respond..

This message cannot be ignored this email cannot ignored this communication cannot be ignored this correspondence cannot be ignored this cannot be ignored this cannot be ignored.

Somebody can figure it out because it's not rocket science.

It's difficult to wrap your mind around I agree but it's not hard to understand that humans have done so many better and wiser things with our technology and our priorities.

We went to the moon after all and that was the decade that I was born.

There's certain aspects about this.. that I was born in 1965. But I'm going to die here very soon.

Because nobody seems to be able to wrap their head around something and respond professionally.

I have two people on the hook right here and now today that should respond to me properly.

That would be the websites and the purpose for which their interfaces are involved into my progression of HIV disease.

I have an account that I have created on SoundCloud that is an absolute truth.

My question on to SoundCloud customer support here is whether or not original spoken work narratives are considered published work. And I do believe they are. So there is a matter to which it becomes a published work that puts it into the view that it is not just material or information that is contained in a personal library. The material is put into the view of being published.

There is no way to intentionally create an informational quarantine against my ability to bring forward into civil society these matters that are dire and grave. And by silence and deception maintains such an informational quarantine.

For all of these many years now, that is exactly what has been done to me.

I question persons attempt at dialogue when they can't have a conversation and have to shut me out immediately like some sort of bully who can't seem to understand this is an absolutely fatal health matter condition.

It is not right never will be right to carry on without offering me my rights back into view. These are my basic human rights that were declared in the late 1940s.

Specifically being violated.

<https://www.un.org/en/about-us/universal-declaration-of-human-rights>

Article 19

Everyone has the right to freedom of opinion and expression; this right includes freedom to hold opinions without interference and to seek, receive and impart information and ideas through any media and regardless of frontiers.

Article 25

1. Everyone has the right to a standard of living adequate for the health and well-being of himself and of his family, including food, clothing, housing and medical care and necessary social services, and the right to security in the event of unemployment, sickness, disability, widowhood, old age or other lack of livelihood in circumstances beyond his control.

2. Motherhood and childhood are entitled to special care and assistance. All children, whether born in or out of wedlock, shall enjoy the same social protection.

Among other rights....

And then we have the convention for the rights of persons with disabilities.

Specifically article 12 on legal capacity.

This is where it becomes intersect with the Federal governments administration of our healthcare and particularly my HIV disease.

<https://www.cdc.gov/ncbddd/disabilityandhealth/disability-inclusion.html>

Disability Inclusion

Disability Inclusion:

Making sure everybody has the same opportunities to participate in every aspect of life to the best of their abilities and desires.

What is Disability Inclusion?

Including people with disabilities in everyday activities and encouraging them to have roles similar to their peers who do not have a disability is disability inclusion. This involves more than simply encouraging people; it requires making sure that adequate policies and practices are in effect in a community or organization.

Inclusion should lead to increased participation in socially expected life roles and activities—such as being a student, worker, friend, community member, patient, spouse, partner, or parent.

Socially expected activities may also include engaging in social activities, using public resources such as transportation and libraries, moving about within communities, receiving adequate health care, having relationships, and enjoying other day-to-day activities.

Disability Inclusion and the Health of People with Disabilities

Disability inclusion allows for people with disabilities to take advantage of the benefits of the same health promotion and prevention activities experienced by people who do not have a disability.

Examples of these activities include:

Education and counselling programs that promote physical activity, improve nutrition or reduce the use of tobacco, alcohol or drugs; and

Blood pressure and cholesterol assessment during annual health exams, and screening for illnesses such as cancer, diabetes, and heart disease.

Including people with disabilities in these activities begins with identifying and eliminating barriers to their participation.

What is identified is absolute.

It may be an inconvenient Truth but it's the facts.

And facts don't lie I'm saying here.

I am hated on and I am continuously dealing with elements of what is a crime in my life.

That I identify as a targeted individual of gang stalking.

That is a crime.

What Is Gang Stalking?

Maggie J. Hall

Last Modified Date: February 17, 2023 (<https://www.mylawquestions.com/what-is-gang-stalking.htm#authorBox>)

Gang stalking (<https://www.mylawquestions.com/what-is-stalking.htm>) refers to harassment (<https://www.mylawquestions.com/what-are-the-different-types-of-harassment.htm>) and intimidation tactics used by a group of individuals against another person or toward a smaller group of people. People may initiate this type of civil offense because they are intolerant of another person for numerous reasons, which might include differing beliefs or lifestyles, jealousy, or racial prejudice. Stalkers generally design the covert methods used for psychological harassment (<https://www.mylawquestions.com/what-is-psychological-harassment.htm>) to exact revenge, coerce silence, or cast out persons having opposing views. While gang stalking is considered a misdemeanor in some states, the offense carries felony (<https://www.mylawquestions.com/what-is-a-felony.htm>) penalties in others.

I have an unusual condition that my location that I'm currently at has a difficult acknowledging these facts among our community.

That's not unusual I should post I would say pervasively unusual.

So far that it's unusual it actually has a specific Reddit post. This was authored by some other person in our community.

Furthermore....

A year ago February of last year, one of the former department of corrections parole officers for the city of San Bernardino appeared before the city council meeting.

He was there to address gang stalking.

So in essence one of their own addressing his need to appear before the city council meeting.

Joseph Mora, former corrections department parole officer for the San Bernardino Police department.

Coverage mention In the San Bernardino Sun,

<https://www.sbsun.com/2022/02/03/san-bernardino-council-continues-squeezing-mayors-role/>

At the very last two paragraphs of the article.

One speaker who called San Bernardino “a diamond in the rough” went on to slag it off, saying all its neighbors “are doing better than us” – including “Colton, for god’s sake.”

Another speaker brought up a wide range of matters in his three minutes. His son has joined the Marines, an intersection is presenting a problem, his family is subjected to “organized gang stalking” by an ex-probation officer, and finally, “happy Lunar New Year.”

You should actually open it up and listen to what he said about people breaking into his house.

You would think a former parole officer would be able to link to the law enforcement to prevent people from breaking into his house.

Something severely wrong here something severely wrong

Absolutely nothing can be done that can penetrate the wall that is surrounding me of an informational quarantine to form an understanding outside of me.

This matter is self-evident.

Every piece of my effort that I try to put this out into the view of others is pushed right into the gutter. By technology adaptive filtering and other content suppression technology that is active violating my rights.

An informational quarantine is what I am suffering under. And illegally imposed punitive measures outside of any kind of due process. A jail. A prison.

A technology imposed content suppression informational quarantine is what I am suffering under.

The convention for the rights of persons with disabilities was signed into action in the United States by the Barack Obama in 2009.

I just don't know how to come up with some sort of significance.

I have no significance.

You all treat me like shit!

Not a single word back that a human is caring to receive my communication and respond to me professionally.

The world of our communications is distracted somehow that I can't get through the static.

And so I must have to die.

Die from not having treatment in HIV care, adequate to the circumstances.

And so there have been two soundcloud entries of spoken voice presentation.

And I'm not keeping this quiet.

I don't want to put my face upon some sort of presentation out there on YouTube or something I don't need that. I don't want that I don't want the celebrity. It would ruin my life. I deserve to have my life back and maintain my anonymity of walking among our crowd of our public.

You all forced me to be something that I'm not. I'm not going to survive this I'm going to die.

The fault for that it's yours. Responsibility to fix this is yours not mine.

If nobody is willing to step forward and stand on my side for a change. And speak for me for a change. And speak for the truth for a change. I might as well keep it suicide.

In the attached images there is actual 911 text interface. 911 services are not available to persons who are targeted individuals of gangstalking.

That's just a matter of fact and the audio that I have on soundcloud proves it.

This is more of a disclosure than a question. But if I were to have a question I think I know the answer. Audios that are posted to SoundCloud as a spoken narrative original work by an author would be considered at the time is posted in audio form to be a published work. Correct?

Dear human being at SoundCloud.

Please slow down and ground yourself, you are probably not familiar and not have a habit of doing this kind of interface for a customer service.

Your response:

Thank you for writing in to let us know about this material. We're sorry to hear that you have found content which you object to on SoundCloud.

Is completely off the mark. Any references to SoundCloud in my help ticket address are my direct Sound recordings.

I'm not finding content that I object to that I self posted.

or

Im not finding it content that I self posted objectionable..

And

that is not what I wanted as an answer.

And I'm not expecting an answer so quick from you.

Apparently because you're really busy.

I am facilitating using your help system because the sounds that I have on file are specifically and controversially involved in the address to the community.

My question to you was that my my own sound postings are they considered published works so they're placed onto your server for the public.

I do believe the answer is yes.ml

That was my question.

How did you as a human being decide that I was here creating a ticket to complain about a particular SoundCloud posting?

Be specific. it's okay. everything's fine to be specific.

I will assume that your deviation and diversion from the actual problem here is that you are trying to do the same thing everyone else does. They seem to be able to confuse very easily because they don't want to get involved..

Precognitively they have memetic resistance answer just as it is I have a feeling answer but you know what I realize that I know what I'm saying is is perfectly fine and that the person on the other end is anything adjustments. I put in again the Google review f

God damn you people! You are still misdirecting my need to contact support@soundcloud.com

I think this is intentional.. I do not see how my communication is that confusing that you would not focus on the true focus true focus true focus on the heart of the matter.

I think you're kind of off your rockers..

For a reason, I'm not going to accept, the matter that I'm putting forward and pushing into your view is indeclinable.

I am very tired of dealing with a human being on the end of a conversation that is intentioned to not bring forward a natural flow of a conversation

There is no excuse for this.

Except for plain ignorance.

I would have to assume that every human being has an IQ of 80 for them to not receive the the Crux of the matter and respond to the Crux of the matter appropriately.

Since I pay for the SoundCloud service as an additional fee on my account because I care to have SoundCloud with the extra space and the extra serving capability.

I am trying to say again,

On particular note,

My SoundCloud audios are spoken voice.

I am trying to get the notation that this is a source that is considered publishing of original work.

My rights to my own work and or anything like that others reporting that that's not what I'm referring to and you know it.

I'm not talking about infringement.

Where are you coming up with that and pulling it out of the thin blue sky to answer me?

I really don't think it's hard to understand you just look at my account of two sounds objects added.

The Name of my account ?

I just don't know how to communicate it to you guys?

Is that what you're trying to say?

or is it not to receiving on your end that is the problem?

I know the answer already I think it's insulting that you continue this and just don't follow through with the answer which is about something...

To prepare or not prepare to use a SoundCloud audio into a testimonial record into court.

Is SoundCloud considered a original work published location?

I do believe I know the answer.

Another words...

Publishing in a particular magazine or publishing and particular journal it's different than holding your own copy of it in your personal information system.

So by placing it onto SoundCloud that makes it and the public published work and if that is original work that is a sound source of reference.

Correct?

I am so frustrated with you people who can't seem to get it. And to get what is the problem here. I have to assume everybody just cannot have a normal rational conversation and respectfully respond respond rationally.

The only other thing I can think of that perhaps is true but then again I would have to see the log on the other side,

And I would hate to see if that log is on the other side is a provable fact

The content that I'm actually sending out in my send button is not the content that you are receiving.

That's something is involved to the malform of the communication somehow instrumentally a technology filtering process that between you and I would be an illegal process imposed upon me by some outside source.

The possibility exists.

Not likely.

You are receiving my communications for support@ soundcloud.com

You're not actually ghosting this.

And overall emotional torment this is the current status of my emotions,

In that there is evidence here

Here in the United States of America

That I must proceed to forward and make sure that you understand this.

I am dying : unable to get access to adequate health Care. A violation of universal declaration of human Rights article 25.

This is an unusual circumstance and I would like to know if my actual record of 911 emergency
